diverse pleasures

This concert, along with the Esprit's March and May concerts, weaves music by composers featured on Esprit's debut European tour (September 1999) into a rich and diverse Canadian musical fabric enhanced by works from abroad. Ondine, by Tiziano Manca, was one of several works selected in the Gaudeamus Young Composers' Competition and performed on Esprit's concerts at the 1999 International Gaudeamus Music Week in Amsterdam.

celebrating harry somers

Of special interest on this concert, Esprit's first ever devoted to the music of one composer, is a Somers work unknown by the public – Elegy, Transformation, Jubilation. The piece requires the largest orchestra ever used by Esprit to be spatially divided into five groups onstage and features the ultimate application of Somers' multi-tempo, multi-layering, multi-ponic techniques. In combination with the other music on this programme, the piece offers an in-depth experience of the composer's musical brilliance and spirituality.

the palace of the cinnabar phoenix

Oriental inflections appear in each piece on this concert. As a Millennium project, Esprit has commissioned the second to last work in Murray Schafer's Patria series – The Palace of the Cinnabar Phoenix – a spectacular music drama set in China's T'sang Dynasty (A.D. 618-907). To be performed outdoors in the evening and after nightfall at the edge of a lake, the work is "a message of peace for the Millennium and speaks of harmony between East and West as well as harmony with nature." This programme previews segments of the piece for choir and orchestra in a concert version. Evangelista's work derives its inspiration from North Indian musical forms while Ishii's Concertante reveals the composer's heritage through the vigour and mastery of his highly individualistic style. Vivier's magical Pulau dewata (for any combination of instruments) was influenced by the composer's extensive travels in Asia and has become his best known and most widely performed piece.

esprit snapshot 2000

This concert captures the essence of Esprit's mandate which centres on discovering young composers, promoting Canada's most accomplished composers, guarding our musical heritage by ensuring senior composers are not forgotten and placing Canadian music in an international context. Repeat performances of previously commissioned works are integral to our programming. As part of the MusicCanadaMusique 2000 celebrations, the programme includes an encore performance of the first piece ever commissioned by Esprit (Rea) together with our most recent commissions (Sokolovic and Hétu). Through the music of Hétu, Rea and Sokolovic, three generations of Canadian composers are represented. Ron Ford's piece adds the international accent and extends Esprit's link with the contemporary music scene in The Netherlands.

esprit orchestra profile

Esprit is Canada's only orchestra devoted exclusively to contemporary music. Each season, the orchestra commissions and premieres new Canadian pieces and ensures continued audience access to these works through encore performances, radio broadcasts (CBC Radio One and Two), compact disc recordings (CBC Records SM 5000 label) and film soundtracks (Don McKellar's Last Night and Jeremy Podeswa's The Five Senses). Esprit's programming is innovative and aims to stimulate, enlighten, entertain and challenge its audiences.

Esprit's 1999/2000 season began with the orchestra's debut European tour in early September. With four concerts in Amsterdam (at the International Gaudeamus Music Week) and one in Paris, Esprit's tour was one of the largest-ever presentations of Canadian orchestral music in Europe. Ninety per cent of the repertoire was Canadian and guest artists on tour were Robert Aitken, flute, and Erica Goodman, harp.

Toward a Living Art sponsor-a-student

Each year Esprit provides access to a full season of its concerts to students from the Greater Metro area by inviting our subscribers to purchase a student subscription along with their own. At the beginning of each season we pass these student subscriptions on to schools that have taken part in Esprit's educational activities. If you would like to donate a season of Esprit concerts to a student, please complete the Sponsor-a-Student (Toward a Living Art) section on this form.
